

UNDERTAKING OF MEDIA REPRESENTATIVES ATTENDING LOCK-UP

Court of Appeal for British Columbia

J.P. v. British Columbia (Children and Family Development)

I, the undersigned, as a condition of being allowed to review the Reasons for Judgment in J.P. v. British Columbia (Children and Family Development) prior to their public release, agree and undertake to comply with the following conditions and restrictions:

1. I agree that for the duration of the lock-up I will disable any cellular phone, Blackberry, smartphone or other personal digital assistant (PDA), pager, radio transmitter, electronic device or any other equipment in my possession that would permit the transmission/receiving of information by any means to a location or receiver outside the media lock-up. I will neither initiate nor receive communications on any such device for the duration of the lock-up.
2. I will not transmit the contents of the Reasons for Judgment or any information about the contents in any form to anyone for the duration of the lock-up.
3. I understand and agree that I will not be free to leave the media lock-up until the Court of Appeal registry has publicly released the Reasons for Judgment (approximately 10:00 a.m.) on Thursday, August 31, 2017, and I consent to being detained in and prevented from leaving the media lock-up room until then.
4. I understand that I will be subject to sanction if I fail to adhere to the terms of this undertaking.
