Cite as: Transcript Extracts (Civil Practice Directive, 19 September 2011)

If, in the opinion of counsel, a full transcript of evidence is required for the proper hearing of the appeal, then notwithstanding Rules 20 and 27, with the approval of the registrar, a full transcript may be filed in place of the transcript extracts.

If a disagreement arises between counsel as to whether a full transcript is required, the issue may be brought before a justice in chambers. Upon such application, the justice may give directions as to whether or not compliance with Rules 20(1)(b) and 27 is required in relation to the appeal.
