

Effective Date: 2010/07/01

Number: FPD - 6

Title:

Practice Direction
Short Notice Applications - Family

Summary:

This Practice Direction provides a variation of the Requisition in Form F17 that may be used by a party making a short notice application under Supreme Court Family Rule 10-9(1).

Direction:

1. A short notice application under Supreme Court Family Rule 10-9(1) may be made by:
 - a. filing a Requisition in the form attached as Schedule A, together with supporting material,
 - b. attending for the hearing of the short notice application.
2. If no judge or master is available, the short notice application may be heard by a legally trained registrar.

Robert J. Bauman
Chief Justice

Schedule A
Form F17

No.
..... Registry

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF BRITISH COLUMBIA

BETWEEN:

Plaintiff/Petitioner

AND:

Defendant/Respondent

REQUISITION – SHORT NOTICE APPLICATIONS

Filed by:party.....

Required:

[] An order pursuant to Supreme Court Family Rule 10-9(1) that the main application be brought on short notice.

Party or party's lawyer

ORDER BY ENDORSEMENT (to be completed by a judge, master or registrar

[] Date set for hearing of main application: _____

Conditions for Service:

Service by applicant of Notice of Application and applicant's affidavits with this order on the respondent(s)

[] before _____ a.m./p.m. on _____

Service of respondent(s)'s Application Response and affidavits on applicant:

[] before _____ a.m./p.m. on _____

Other Conditions:

[] applicant must file application record on or by _____

[] _____

Endorsed:

Judge/Master/Registrar _____

Date _____